

Updated April 2020

Matthew Lee Chen

Trinity College, University of Cambridge, CB2 1TQ, UK

mlc82 [at] cam [dot] ac [dot] uk

Education

BA Economics, University of Cambridge (Part I/Year 1: First Class in 5/5 papers)	2018-2021
Sir Joseph Williamson's Mathematical School (A-Level: A*A*A*AA, GCSE: 12A*)	2011-2018

Research Interests

Economic Growth, Development Economics, Political Economy

Work in Progress

An Economic Theory of Political Revolutions (JEL: D74, D72, D73, P16)
Most recent version available at SSRN

Entrepreneurship in the Developing World: Implications for Business Development in Tanzania (JEL: O17, L26, J46, L31, O55, O57)
Finalised version available at Cambridge Development Initiative Working Paper Series (2019)

Awards

Roger Moore Prize for Academic Performance (Trinity College, Cambridge)	2019
Examinations Prize for Academic Performance (Trinity College, Cambridge)	2019
Junior Scholarship (Trinity College, Cambridge)	2019
'Student of the Year' (Sir Joseph Williamson's Mathematical School)	2017
'Exhibition in Pure Mathematics' (Sir Joseph Williamson's Mathematical School)	2017
'Trustees' Prize in Economics' (Sir Joseph Williamson's Mathematical School)	2017

Additional Experience

Founder and General Partner, M. Lee Chen Associates LP (Investment Partnership)	2016-present
UCAS Tutor and Mock Interviewer, Sir Joseph Williamson's Mathematical School	2018-2020
Writer, Theoretical and Applied Economics (Blog)	2018-2020
Tutor, Access Oxbridge	2018-2020
Undergraduate Researcher, Cambridge Development Initiative	2018-2019

Personal Information

Languages: English (native), Mandarin Chinese (proficient), Spanish (basic)
Technical Skills: Stata, LaTeX, Excel, EViews, Python, Matlab, R, Mathematica
Citizenship: United Kingdom